2. Pronunciation

French letter(s)	English Sound
à, â	ah
é, et, and final er and ez	ay
e, è, ê, ai, ei, ais	eh
i, y	ee
o	oh
ö	shorter and more open than aw in bought ou	oo
oy, oi	wah
u	ew
u + vowel	wee
c (before e, i, y)	s
ç (before a, o, u)	s
c (before a, o, u)	k
g (before e, i, y)	zh
ge (before a, o)	zh
g (before a, o, u)	g
gn	nyuh
h	silent
j	zh
qu, final q	k

FINANCIAL OTABIL

r	rolled
s	(between vowels)	z
th	t
ekss, except as s in six , dix , and soixante x in liaisons, like z

Note: French pronunciation is tricky because it uses nasal sounds which we do not have in English and there are a lot of silent letters. However, if a word ends in C, R, F or L (except verbs that end in -r) you usually pronounce the final consonant. Their vowels tend to be shorter as well. The French slur most words together in a sentence, so if a word ends in a consonant that is not pronounced and the next word starts with a vowel or silent h, slur the two together as if it were one word. More about Pronunciation

1. The "slurring" that I mentioned is called liaison. It is always made:

- after a determiner (words like un, des, les, mon, ces, quels)
- before or after a pronoun (vous avez, je les ai)
- after a preceding adjective (bon ami, petits enfants)
- after one syllable prepositions (en avion, dans un livre)
- after some one syllable adverbs (très, plus, bien)
- after est

It is optional after pas, trop fort, and the forms of être, but it is never made after et.

2. Sometimes the e is dropped in words and phrases, shortening the syllables and slurring more words.

- rapid(e)ment, lent(e)ment, sauv(e)tage (pronounced ra-peed-mawn, not ra-peed-uh-mawn)
- sous l(e) bureau, chez l(e) docteur (pronounced sool bewr-oh, not soo luh bewr-oh)
- il a d(e) bons copains (eel ahd bohn ko-pahn, not eel ah duh bohn ko-pahn)
- il y a d(e)... , pas d(e)... , plus d(e)... (eel yahd, pahd, plewd, not eel ee ah duh, pah duh, or plew duh)
- je n(e), de n(e) (zhuhn, duhn, not zhuh nuh or duh nuh)
- j(e) te, c(e) que (shtuh, skuh, not zhuh tuh or suh kuh - note the change of the pronunciation of the j as well)

3. In general, intonation only rises for yes/no questions, and all other times, it goes down at the end of the sentence.

4. Two sounds that are tricky to an American English speaker are the differences between the long and short u and e. The long u is pronounced oooh, as in hoot. The short u does not exist in English though. To pronounce it correctly, round your lips as if to whistle, and then say eee. The long and short e are relatively easy to pronounce, but sometimes it is difficult to hear the difference. The long e is pronounced openly, like ay, as in play. The short e is more closed, and pronounced like eh, as in bed.

6. And of course, the nasals. These are what present the most problems for English speakers. Here are the orthographical representations, and approximate pronunciations. Nasal means that you expel air through your nose while saying the words, so don't actually pronounce the n fully.

My Pronunciation	Orthographical Representation
Representation	in, im, yn, ym, ain, aim, ein, eim, un, um, en, eng, oin, oing, oint,

FINANCIAL OTABIL

ahn	an apple	ien, yen, éen
awn	on the desk	en, em, an, am, aon, aen
ohn	my own book	on, om

In words beginning with in-, a nasal is only used if the next letter is a consonant. Otherwise, the in-prefix is pronounced een before a vowel.

3. Alphabet

a	ah	j	zhee	s	ess
b	beh	k	kah	t	teh
c	seh	l	ell	u	ooh
d	deh	m	em	v	veh
e	uh	n	en	w	doo-blah-veh
f	eff	o	oh	x	eeks
g	zheh	p	peh	y	ee-grek
h	ahsh	q	koo	z	zed
i	ee	r	air

4. Nouns, Articles and Demonstrative Adjectives

All nouns in French have a gender, either masculine or feminine. For the most part, you must memorize the gender, but there are some endings of words that will help you decide which gender a noun is. Nouns ending in -age and -ment are usually masculine, as are nouns ending with a consonant. Nouns ending in -ure, -sion, -tion, -ence, -ance, -té, and -ette are usually feminine.

Articles and adjectives must agree in number and gender with the nouns they modify. And articles have to be expressed even though they aren't always in English; and you may have to repeat the article in some cases. Demonstratives are like strong definite articles.

Definite Articles (The)

Masculine	Feminine	Before Vowel	Plural
le lit	la pomme	l' oiseau	les gants
the bed	the apple	the bird	the gloves

Indefinite Articles (A, An, Some)

Masculine	Feminine	Plural
un lit bed	une pomme an apple	des gants a some gloves

FINANCIAL OTABIL

Demonstrative Adjectives (This, That, These, Those)

Masc.	Masc, Before Vowel	Fem.	Plural	ce lit	cet
oiseau	cette pomme	ces gants
gloves	this/that bed	this/that bird	this/that apple	these/those

If you need to distinguish between this or that and these or those, you can add -ci to the end of the noun for this and these, and -là to the end of the noun for that and those. For example, ce lit-ci is this bed, while ce lit-là is that bed.

5. Useful Words and General Vocabulary

It's / That's c'est	say	There is/are il y a	eel-ee-yah
There is/are voilà	vwah-lah	Here is/are voici	vwah-see and et	ay	always toujours	too-zhoor
but mais	may	often souvent	soo-vawn
now maintenant	mahn-t-nawn	sometimes quelquefois	kell-kuh-fwah
especially surtout	sir-too	usually d'habitude	dah-bee-tewd except sauf	sohf	also, too aussi	oh-see of course bien sûr	bee-ahn sir	again encore	aw ⁿ -kore
so so comme ci, comme ça	kohm see kohm sah	late en retard	aw ⁿ -ruh-tar not bad pas mal	pah mal	almost presque	presk
book le livre	leevr	friend (fem) une amie	ew nah-mee
pencil le crayon	krah-yohn	friend (masc) un ami	ah-nah-mee
pen le stylo	stee-loh	woman une femme	ewn fawn paper le papier	pah-pyaya	man un homme	ah-nohm
dog le chien	shee-ahn	girl une fille	feey
cat le chat	shah	boy un garçon	gar-sohn

Note: When il y a is followed by a number, it means ago. Il y a cinq minutes means five minutes ago.

6. Subject Pronouns

Subject Pronouns

Je	zhuh l	Nous	noo	We
Tu	tew You (informal)	Vous	voo	You (formal and plural)
Il	ee l He	Ils	ee l	They (masc.) They
Elle	ell She	Elles	ell	(fem.)
On	ohn One

FINANCIAL OTABIL

Note: Il and elle can also mean it when they replace a noun (il replaces masculine nouns, and elle replaces feminine nouns) instead of a person's name. Ils and elles can replace plural nouns as well in the same way. Notice there are two ways to say you. Tu is used when speaking to children, animals, or close friends and relatives. Vous is used when speaking to more than one person, or to someone you don't know or who is older. On can be translated into English as one, the people, we, they, or you.

7. To Be and To Have

Present tense of être - to be (eh-truh)

I am	Je suis zhuh swee	We are	Nous sommes noo sohm
You are	Tu es tew ay	You are	Vous êtes voo zett
He is	Il est eel ay		They are Ils sont eel sohn
She is	Elle est ell ay		They are Elles sont ell sohn
One is	On est ohn ay

Past tense of être - to be

I was (being)	j' étais zhay-teh	We were (being)	nous étions ay-tee-ohn	You were (being)
tu étais	ay-teh	vous étiez	ay-tee-ay
He was (being)	il était ay-teh		They were (being)	ils étaient ay-teh was (being) elle était ay-teh			They were (being) elles étaient ay-teh	One was (being) on était ay-teh

Note: Je and any verb form that starts with a vowel (or silent h) combine together for ease of pronunciation.

Future Tense of être - to be

I will be	je serai suh-reh	We will be	nous serons suh-rohn
You will be	tu seras suh-rah	You will be	vous seriez suh-ree-ay
He will be	il sera suh-rah	They will be	ils seront suh-rohn
She will be	elle sera suh-rah	They will be	elles seront suh-rohn

One will be on sera suh-rah

Note: You must use the subject pronouns; but I will leave them out of future conjugations.

Present tense of avoir - to have (ah-vwahr)

I have	j'ai zhay	We have	avons ah-vohn
You have	as ah	You have	avez ah-vay
He/she has a	ah	They have	ont ohn

FINANCIAL OTABIL

Past tense of avoir - to have

I had	j'avais zhah-veh	We had	avions ah-vee-ohn
You had	avais ah-veh	You had	aviez ah-vee-ay
He/she had	avait ah-veh	They had	avaient ah-veh

Future tense of avoir - to have

I will have	j'aurai zhoh-reh	We will have	aurons oh-rohn	You will have auras oh-rah	You will have	aurez oh-ray
He/she will have	aura oh-rah	They will have	auront oh-rohn

Avoir and être are used in many common and idiomatic expressions that should be memorized:

avoir chaud	- to be hot	avoir froid	- to be cold	about to être en train cold	avoir peur	- to be afraid	avoir raison	- to be right	avoir	de - to be in the act of tort	- to be wrong	avoir faim	- to be hungry	avoir soif	- to be thirsty	être enrhumée	- to have a cold ashamed	avoir besoin de	- to need	avoir l'air de	- to look like,	nous + être (un jour)	- to be (a day)
seem	avoir envie de	- to feel like	avoir de la chance	- to be lucky	J'ai froid.	I'm cold.
					être de retour	- to be back être en retard	- to be late être en avance	- to be early être d'accord	- to be in agreement
					être sur le point de	- to be about to

Tu avais raison. You were right.

Je suis en retard! I'm late!

Il aura sommeil ce soir. He will be tired tonight.

Tu étais en avance. You were early.

Elle a de la chance! She's lucky!

Elle sera d'accord. She will agree.

Nous aurons faim plus tard. We will be of) hungry later. studying.
Vouz aviez tort. You were wrong.

Nous sommes lundi. It is Monday.

Ils ont chaud. They are hot. leave.
Elles avaient peur hier. They were afraid yesterday.

Vous étiez enrhumé. You had a cold.

Ils seront en train d'étudier. They will be (in the act

Elles étaient sur le point de partir. They were about to

On est de retour. We/you/they/the people are back.

Two Hundred One	Deux cent un	duh sawnt ahn
Thousand	Mille	meel
Two Thousand	Deux mille	duh meel
Million	Un million	ahn meel-ee-ohn

Note: French switches the use of commas and periods. 1,00 would be 1.00 in English. Belgian and Swiss French use septante, huitante and nonante in place of the standard French words for 70, 80, and 90. Also, when the numbers 5, 6, 8, and 10 are used before a word beginning with a consonant, their final consonants are not pronounced.

Ordinal Numbers

first	premier, première
second	deuxième
third	troisième
fourth	quatrième
fifth	cinquième
sixth	sixième
seventh	septième
eighth	huitième
ninth	neuvième
tenth	dixième
eleventh	onzième
twelfth	douzième
twentieth	vingtième
twenty-first	vingt et unième
thirtieth	trentième

Note: The majority of numbers become ordinals by adding -ième. But if a number ends in an e, you must drop it before adding the -ième. After a q, you must add a u before the -ième. And an f becomes a v before the -ième.

10. Days of the Week / Les jours de la semaine

Monday	lundi	lahn-dee
Tuesday	mardi	mahr-dee
Wednesday	mercredi	mare-kruh-dee

FINANCIAL OTABIL

Thursday	jeudi	zhuh-dee
Friday	vendredi	vahn-druh-dee
Saturday	samedi	sahm-dee
Sunday	dimanche	dee-mahnsh
day	le jour	luh zhoor week	la semaine	lah suh-men today	aujourd'hui	oh-zhoor-dwee yesterday	hier	ee-air
tomorrow	demain	duh-mahn

Note: Articles are not used before days, except to express something that happens habitually on a certain day, such as "on Monday." (you would use le before the day, as in "le lundi")

11. Months of the Year / Les mois de l'année

January	janvier	zhan-vee-ay
February	février	fay-vree-ay
March	mars	marz
April	avril	ah-vril
May	mai	may-ee
June	juin	zhwahn
July	juillet	zhwee-ay
August	août	oot
September	septembre	sep-tawm-bruh
October	octobre	ahk-toh-bruh
November	novembre	noh-vawm-bruh
December	décembre	day-sawm-bruh
Month	le mois	luh mwah
Year	l'an / l'année	lawn/law-nay

Note: To express in a certain month, such as "in May," use en before the month as in "en mai." With dates, the ordinal numbers are not used, except for the first of the month: le premier mai but le deux juin. Also note that days of the weeks and months of the year are all masculine and not capitalized in French.

12. Seasons / Les saisons

Summer	l'été	lay-tay	in the summer	en été	awn ay-tay
Fall	l'automne	loh-tohn	in the fall	en automne	aw noh-tohn
Winter	l'hiver	lee-vair	in the winter	en hiver	aw nee-vair
Spring	le printemps	luh prahn-tawn	in the spring	au printemps	oh prahn-tawn

13. Directions / Les directions

North le nord luh nor

FINANCIAL OTABIL

South le sud luh sewd
East l'est /est West l'ouest /west

14. Colors and Shapes / Les couleurs et les formes

Red	rouge	roozh	square	le carré	kah-ray
Orange	orange	oh-rahnzh	circle	le cercle	sair-kluh
Yellow	jaune	zhohn	triangle	le triangle	tree-awn-gluh
Green	vert/e	vehr/t	rectangle	le rectangle	ruhk-tawn-gluh
Blue	bleu/e	bluh	oval	l'ovale	loh-vahl
Purple	pourpre	poo-pruh
	violet/te	vee-oh-	cube	le cube	kewb
	leh/lett
White	blanc/he	blawn/sh	sphere	la sphère	sfair
Brown	brun/e	brahn/brewn	marron	le cylindre	see-lahn-druh
	mah-rohn		cylinder
Black	noir/e	nwahr	cone	le cône	kohn
Pink	rose	roze	octagon	l'octogone	ok-toh-gohn
Gold	doré/e	doh-ray	box	une boîte	bwaht
Silver	argenté/e	ahr-zhawn-tay
Gray	gris/e	gree/z

Note: In French, nouns and adjectives have a gender. Ex: vert/e = vert is the masculine form of green, verte is the feminine form. Almost all adjectives agree in gender and number with the noun they modify (except marron and orange, as well as colors that are modified with the words clair-light and foncé-dark) and most are placed after the noun. Un carré brun would be a brown square and une boîte noire would be a black box.

15. Weather / Le temps

What's the weather like? Quel temps fait-il? kell tawn fay-teel

It's nice.	Il fait bon.	eel fay boh n
bad	Il fait mauvais	moh-vay

18. To Know People and Places

connaître-to know people (koh-net-truh) savoir-to know facts (sahv-wahr)

connais koh-neh connaissons koh-nezz-ohn sais say savons sah-vohn connais koh-neh connaissez koh-nezz-ay sais say savez sav-ay connaît koh-neh connaissent koh-nezz sait say savent sahv

Note: Connaître is used when you know people or places, savoir is used when you know facts. When savoir is followed by an infinitive it means to know how.

Je connais ton frère. I know your brother.

Je sais que ton frère s'appelle Jean. I know that your brother is named John. Connaissez-vous Grenoble? Do you know (Are you familiar with) Grenoble?

Oui, nous connaissons Grenoble. Yes, we know (are familiar with) Grenoble.

Tu sais où Grenoble se trouve. You know where Grenoble is located.

Ils savent nager. They know how to swim.

19. Formation of Plural Nouns

To make a noun plural, you usually add an -s. But there are some exceptions:

If a noun already ends in an -s, add nothing.

	Sing.	Plural
bus	le bus	les bus

If a noun ends in -eu or -eau, add an x.

boat	le les bateaux	bateau
-------------	----------------	--------

If a masculine noun ends in -al or -ail, change it to -aux.

horse	les le	cheval	chevaux
--------------	--------	--------	---------

Some nouns ending in -ou add an -x instead of -s.

knee	le genou	les genoux
-------------	----------	------------

There are, of course, some weird exceptions: un œil (eye) - des yeux (eyes); le ciel (sky) - les cieux (skies); and un jeune homme (a young man) - des jeunes gens (young men).

20. Possessive Adjectives

	Masc.	Fem.	Plural
My	mon (mohn)	ma (mah)	mes (may) leurs (luhr)

Note: Possessive pronouns go before the noun. When a feminine noun begins with a vowel, you must use the masculine form of the pronoun for ease of pronunciation. Ma amie is incorrect and must be mon amie, even though amie is feminine.

C'est ma mère et mon père. This is my mother and my father.

Ce sont vos petits-enfants? These are your grandchildren?

Mes parents sont divorcés. My parents are divorced.

Sa grand-mère est veuve. His grandmother is a widow.

Notre frère est marié, mais notre sœur est célibataire. Our brother is married, but our sister is single.

Ton oncle est architecte, n'est-ce pas? Your uncle is an architect, isn't he?

Leurs cousins sont hollandaises. Their cousins are Dutch.

21. To Do or Make

In: Dans vs. En

Dans is used to show the time when an action will begin, while en shows the length of time an action takes.

Je pars dans quinze minutes. I'm leaving in 15 minutes.

Il peut lire ce livre en une demi-heure. He can read this book in a half hour.

With: Avec vs. De vs. A vs. Chez

Avec implies doing something or going along with someone; de is used in phrases of manner and in many idiomatic expressions; à is used when referring to someone's attributes; and chez is used to mean "as far as (person) is concerned." To describe the way a person carries him/herself, no extra word is used.

Je vais en France avec ma sœur. I'm going to France with my sister.

Elle me remercie d'un sourire. She thanks me with a smile.

L'homme aux cheveux roux est très grand. The man with the red hair is very tall.

Note: When the nationalities are used as adjectives, they must agree with the subject of the verb (masculine vs. feminine, and singular vs. plural.) The extra ending shown above is added to signify a feminine subject. To make them plural, just add an -s (unless it already ends in an -s, then add nothing.) The masculine forms of the nationalities are also used to signify the language. And the definite article is not used before a language when it follows the verb parler (to speak.)

25. Negative Sentences

To make sentences negative, simply put ne and pas around the verb. In spoken French, however, the ne is frequently omitted, but it cannot be omitted in written French. And when you are replying "yes" to a negative question, you use si and not oui.

Je suis du Canada. I am from Canada.

Je ne suis pas du Mexique. I am not from Mexico.

Je suis française. I am French (feminine.)

Je ne suis pas suisse. I am not Swiss. (masculine or feminine)

Il est australien. He is Australian.

FINANCIAL OTABIL

Elle n'est pas danoise. She is not Danish.
Elles sont des Etats-Unis. They are from the United States.
Ils ne sont pas du Portugal. They are not from Portugal.
Je parle chinois et japonais. I speak Chinese and Japanese.
Je ne parle pas suédois. I don't speak Swedish.
Vous n'êtes pas du Brésil? You aren't from Brazil?
Si, nous sommes du Brésil. Yes, we are from Brazil.

26. To / In and From places, cities, and countries

Places	Cities	Countries
Masc. au du à de au du	Fem. à la de la à de en de
Vowel à l' de l'	à d'	en d'
Plural aux des	aux des	aux des

If the name of a country, continent, island, state or province ends with an e, the gender is feminine. If it ends in anything else, it is masculine. The exceptions are le Cambodge, le Maine, le Mexique, le Zaïre and le Mozambique. Some cities have an article as well, such as La Nouvelle-Orléans (New Orleans).

Prepositions with American States	To / In	From
Feminine	en	de
Islands	à	de / d'
Masc. w/ Vowel	en / dans l'	d' / de l'
Masc. w/ Consonant	dans le	du

Californie, Caroline du Nord / Sud, Floride, Géorgie, Louisiane, Pennsylvanie, and Virginie are the feminine states. The exception to the masculine beginning with a consonant rule is Texas: in / to Texas is au Texas.

27. To Come and to Go

Venir-to come (vuh-neer)	Aller-to go (ah-lay)
viens vee-ahn venons vuh-nohn	vais vay allons ah-lohn
viens vee-ahn vez vuh-nay	vas vah allez ah-lay
vient vee-ahn viennent vee-enn	va vah vont vohn

Other verbs that are conjugated like venir: tenir - to hold, devenir - to become, obtenir - to get, revenir - to come back.

Je viens des Etats-Unis. I come from the United States.

Il tient un crayon. He's holding a pencil.

Nous allons en Espagne. We're going to Spain.

Tu ne vas pas au Brésil cet été. You're not going to Brazil this summer.

Aller + an infinitive means "going to do something."

FINANCIAL OTABIL

Ils vont aller en Angleterre. They are going to go to England.
Elle va parler russe. She's going to speak Russian.
Je vais devenir professeur. I'm going to become a professor.

Aller is also used idiomatically when talking about health.
Comment vas-tu? How are you?
Je vais bien. I'm fine.

Venir de + an infinitive means "to have just done something."
Il vient d'aller à la Finlande. He just went to Finland.
Vous venez de manger une pomme. You just ate an apple.

28. Conjugating Regular Verbs in the Present Indicative Tense

Verbs in French end in -er, -re, or -ir. The verb before it is conjugated is called the infinitive. Removing the last two letters leaves you with the stem (aimer is the infinitive, aim- is the stem.) The present indicative tense indicates an ongoing action, general state, or habitual activity. Besides the simple present tense (I write, I run, I see); there are two other forms of the present tense in English: the progressive (I am writing, I am running, etc.) and the emphatic (I do write, I do run, etc.) However, these three English present tenses are all translated by the present indicative tense in French.

To conjugate verbs in the present tense, use the stem and add the following endings.

-er	-re	1st -ir	2nd -ir*
-e -ons	-s -ons	-is -issons	-s -ons
-es -ez	-s -ez	-is -issez	-s -ez
-e -ent	- -ent	-it -issent	-t -ent

Sample Regular Verbs

travailler	trah-vy-yay	to work	réussir	ray-oo-seer	to succeed
trouver	troo-vay	to find	guérir	gay-reer	to cure, heal

Note: If a verb is followed by à (like répondre) you have to use the à and any contractions after the conjugated verb. Ex: Je réponds au téléphone.

* The 2nd -ir verbs are considered irregular sometimes because there are only a few verbs which follow that pattern. Other verbs like partir are sortir (to go out), dormir (to sleep), mentir (to lie), sentir (to smell, feel) and servir (to serve.)

29. Pronominal (Reflexive) Verbs

These verbs are conjugated like normal verbs, but they require an extra pronoun before the verb. Most indicate a reflexive action but some are idiomatic and can't be translated literally. The pronouns are:

me nous te vous se se Some Pronominal Verbs
s'amuser	to have fun	se reposer to get up		se souvenir de to remember
se laver	to wash (oneself)	s'entendre bien to get along well se
dépêcher	to hurry	se coucher
comb		to go to bed se peigner to brush
s'habiller	to get dressed	se maquiller
marier	to get married	se casser to put on makeup se to break (arm, leg, etc.)

Note: When used in the infinitive, such as after another verb, the reflexive pronoun agrees with the subject of the sentence. Je vais me coucher maintenant. I'm going to go to bed.

Sample Irregular Pronominal Verb

s'asseoir - to sit down

je m'assieds mah-see-ay nous nous asseyons noo-zah-say-ohn

3. Verbs that are conjugated as -er verbs: Some -ir verbs are conjugated with -er endings. For example: offrir-to offer, give, ouvrir-to open, couvrir-to cover, découvrir-to discover and souffrir-to suffer.

offrir-to offer	j'offre zhaw-fruh
offrons aw-frohn	offres aw-fruh offrez aw-fray	offre aw-fruh
offrent aw-fruh

4. Verbs that end in -yer: Change the y to an i in all forms except the nous and vous. Examples: envoyer-to send (awn-vwah-yay), nettoyer-to clean (nuh-twah-yay), essayer-to try (ess-ah-yay)

envoyer-to send j'envoie zhawn-vwah envoyons awn-vwah-yohn envoies awn-vwah envoyez awn-vwah-yay envoie awn-vwah envoient awn-vwah

5. Verbs that double the consonant: Some verbs, such as appeler-to call (ahp-lay), and jeter-to throw (zheh-tay) double the consonant in all forms except the nous and vous.

31. The Past Indefinite Tense or Passé Composé

You have learned the present indicative so far, which expresses what happens, is happening, or does happen now; but if you want to say something happened, or has happened, you have to use the passé composé. The passé composé is used for actions that happened only once, a specified number of times or during a specified period of time, and as a result or consequence of another action. All you need to learn are the past participles of the verbs.

Regular Verbs: Formation of the Past Participle

-er -é
-re -u
-ir -i

Then conjugate avoir and add the past participle:

J'ai aimé le concert. I liked the concert.
Tu as habité ici? You lived here?
Il a répondu au téléphone. He answered (or has answered) the telephone.
Nous avons fini le projet. We finished (or have finished) the project.
Elles ont rempli les tasses. They filled (or have filled) the cups.

To make it negative, put the ne and pas around the conjugated form of avoir.

Je n'ai pas aimé le concert. I didn't like the concert.
Il n'a pas répondu. He didn't answer (or hasn't answered).
Elles n'ont pas rempli les tasses. They didn't fill (or haven't filled) the glasses.

32. Irregular Past Participles

connaître to know connu	offrir to offer offert	offered croire to believe cru	croire to believe cru	believed pouvoir to be able to pu	was able to	pouvoir to be able to pu
devoir to have to dû	had to	devoir to have to dû
prendre to take pris (pree)	to take	prendre to take pris (pree)

promettre	to promise	promis	promised	vouloir	to want	voulu (voolew)	wanted

33. Etre Verbs

Sixteen "house" verbs and all pronominal verbs are conjugated with être, and they must agree in gender and number with the subject. The house verbs are:

aller-to go	sortir-to go out	venir-to come	mourir-to die	arriver-to arrive
partir-to leave	devenir-to become	monter-to go up	entrer-to enter	tomber-
to fall	revenir-to come back	rester-to stay	rentrer-to return home	naître-to be born passer-to go by (pass)	descendre-to go down

Most have regular past participles, except venir-venu, devenir-devenu, revenir-revenu, mourirmort, and naître-né. And five of these verbs, monter, descendre, sortir, rentrer, and passer can sometimes be conjugated with avoir if they are used with a direct object. Elle a rentré le livre à la bibliothèque. She returned the book to the library.

Conjugation of an être verb

Je suis resté(e) Nous sommes resté(e)s

Tu es resté(e) Vous êtes resté(e)s

Il est resté Ils sont restés

Elle est restée Elles sont restées

You add the e for feminine and s for plural. Vous can have any of the endings.

Conjugation of a Pronominal Verb

Je me suis amusé(e) Nous nous sommes amusé(e)s

Tu t'es amusé(e) Vous vous êtes amusé(e)s

Il s'est amusé Ils se sont amusés

Elle s'est amusée Elles se sont amusées

There are only two cases with pronominal verbs where the past participle does not agree:

- When the pronominal verb is followed by a direct object.

Compare: Elles se sont lavées, but elles se sont lavé les mains.

- With verbs where the reflexive pronoun is an indirect object, such as se parler, se demander, se dire, s'écrire, se sourire, and se téléphoner. Ils se sont téléphoné.

36. To Take, Eat or Drink

Prendre-to take, eat or drink (prawn-druh) prends prawn prenons pruh-nohn

Boire-to drink (bwahr)
 bois bwah buvons bew-vohn

FINANCIAL OTABIL

prends	prawn	prenez	pru-nay	bois	bwah	buvez	bew-vay
prend	prawn	prennent	prenn	boit	bwah	boivent	bwahv

Other verbs that are conjugated like prendre: apprendre - to learn, comprendre - to understand and surprendre - to surprise.

Note: When you want to say "I am having wine," the French translation is "Je prends du vin." You must use de and le, la, l', or les and the proper contractions (called partitives) because in French you must also express some. So "je prends de la bière" literally means "I am having some beer" even though in English we would usually only say I am having beer.

Manger is a regular verb meaning "to eat," but manger is used in a general sense, such as Je mange le poulet tous les samedis. I eat chicken every Saturday. Boire is literally the verb to drink and is also used in a general sense only. Je bois du vin tout le temps. I drink wine all the time.

37. Quantities

assez de	enough (of)	un morceau de	a piece of	une douzaine de	a dozen of une assiette de	a plate of	un peu de	a little (bit) of	un paquet de	a packet of beaucoup de	a lot of	une tasse de	a cup of	un panier de	a basket of une boîte de	a box of	une tranche de	a slice of	une poignée de	a handful of une bouteille de	a bottle of	trop de	too much, many	plus de	more un kilo de	a kilo of	un verre de	a glass of	un bouquet de	a bunch of Note: With quantities and negatives, you never use partitives. The construction is always de or d' + noun.

Je voudrais prendre du fromage, mais pas de fruit. I would like to have some cheese, but no fruit.

Il prend de la viande. He is eating some meat.

Nous prenons du riz et du brocoli. We are having some rice and broccoli.

Il y a trop de lait dans la tasse. There is too much milk in the cup.

Je voudrais un morceau de tarte. I would like one piece of pie.

Est-ce que je peux prendre un verre de vin? May I have a glass of wine?

Je prends du vin. I'm drinking some wine.

Je ne prends pas de vin. I am not drinking any wine.

38. Commands

Use the vous, tu and nous forms for commands.

Vous form	Polite and Plural	Same as verb form	Restez!	Stay!
Tu form	Familiar	Same as verb form, but drop -s for -er verbs	Regarde!	Watch!
Nous form	Let's...	Same as verb form	Allons!	Let's go!

FINANCIAL OTABIL

Note: With using pronominal verbs as commands, the pronoun is placed after the verb connected by a hyphen. Tu te dépêches becomes Dépêche-toi! And in negative commands, the pronoun precedes the verb, as in Ne nous reposons pas.

Irregular Command Forms être (be) avoir

(have) savoir (know)

tu	sois	swah	tu	aie	ay	tu	sache	sahsh
nous	soyons	swah-yohn	nous	ayons	ay-yohn	nous	sachons	sah-shohn vous
soyez	swah-yay	vous	ayez	ay-yay	vous	sachez	sah-shay

Ne sois pas méchant à ta sœur! Don't be mean to your sister!

N'ayez pas peur! Don't be afraid!

Sachez les mots pour l'examen demain! Know the words for the exam tomorrow!

39. More Negatives

ne...plus	no longer
ne...jamais	never ne...rien nothing ne...aucun(e) not a single one ne...que only ne...personne	nobody ne...ni...ni	neither...nor
ne...nulle part	nowhere

The negatives are used exactly like ne...pas; but que in ne...que is placed directly before the noun it limits. Rien and personne may be used as subjects: Personne n'est ici. Aucun(e) by definition is singular, so the verb and nouns must also be changed to the singular. With ni...ni, all articles are dropped except definite articles. Je n'ai ni caméra ni caméscope, but Je n'aime ni les chats ni les chiens.

Il n'aime plus travailler. He no longer likes to work. (Or: He doesn't like to work anymore)

Nous ne voulons faire des achats que lundi. We want to go shopping only on Monday.

Elle ne déteste personne. She hates no one. (Or: She doesn't hate anyone.)

Negatives with Passé Composé

1. Ne...pas, ne...plus, ne...jamais, and ne...rien

Ne comes before auxiliary verb, and the other part is between auxiliary and past participle.

Nous n'avons rien fait. We did nothing. Vous ne vous êtes pas ennuyés. You were not bored.

2. Ne...personne, ne...aucun, ne...ni...ni, ne...nulle part, and ne... que

Ne comes before the auxiliary verb, but the other part is after the past participle.

Il n'a écouté personne. He listened to no one. Il n'a fait aucune faute. He made not a single mistake.

* Use of ne ... pas de: In negative sentences, the partitives and indefinite articles become de before the noun (unless the verb is être, then nothing changes.)

Partitive: Je prends du pain et du beurre. I'm having some bread and butter.

Negative: Je ne prends pas de pain ou de beurre. I am not having any bread or butter.

FINANCIAL OTABIL

Indefinite: J'ai un chien. I have a dog.

Negative: Je n'ai pas de chien. I don't have a dog.

Verb is être: C'est une chatte brune. It's a brown cat.

Negative: Ce n'est pas une chatte brune. It's not a brown cat.

The French National Anthem: La Marseillaise

by Claude-Joseph Rouget de L'isle

Allons enfants de la Patrie, Le jour de gloire est arrivé.
Contre nous, de la tyrannie,
L'étendard sanglant est levé, l'étendard sanglant est levé.
Entendez-vous dans les campagnes Mugir ces farouches soldats.
Ils viennent jusque dans nos bras égorer vos fils, vos compagnes.
Aux armes citoyens! Formez vos bataillons, Marchons, marchons!
Qu'un sang impur Abreuve nos sillons.

Amour sacré de la Patrie, Conduis, soutiens nos bras vengeurs.
Liberté, liberté chérie,
Combats avec tes défenseurs;
Sous nos drapeaux, que la victoire Accoure à tes mâles accents; Que tes ennemis expirants Voient ton triomphe et notre gloire! Aux armes citoyens! Formez vos bataillons, Marchons, marchons!
Qu'un sang impur Abreuve nos sillons.
Ye sons of France, awake to glory, Hark, hark, what myriads bid you rise: Your children, wives and grandsires hoary, Behold their tears and hear their cries, see their tears and hear their cries! Shall hateful tyrants mischief breeding with hireling hosts, a ruffian band
Affright and desolate the land, while peace and liberty lie bleeding?
To arms, to arms, ye brave! Th'avenging sword unsheathe!
March on! March on! All hearts resolved on victory or death.

O sacred love of france, undying,

FINANCIAL OTABIL

*Th'avenging arm uphold and guide Thy defenders, death defying, Fight with Freedom on their side. Soon thy sons shall be victorious
When the banner high is raised;
And thy dying enemies, amazed,
Shall behold thy triumph, great and glorious.
To arms, to arms, ye brave! Th'avenging sword unsheathe!
March on! March on! All hearts resolved on victory or death.*

Translation by Percy Bysshe Shelley (1st verse) and Mary Elizabeth Shaw (2nd verse) (This is not a literal translation.)

The Canadian National Anthem: O Canada

O Canada, terre de nos aïeux, Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux. Car ton bras sait porter l'épée, Il sait porter la croix. Ton histoire est une épopee Des plus brillants exploits.
Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.

*O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free! From far and wide, O Canada, We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.*

41. Imperfect Tense

This past tense corresponds to "was, were or used to." This tense is used for repeated, continuous, or ongoing actions; as well as for verbs that describe background and circumstances, such as weather, time, and physical, mental, and emotional states. Use the passé composé for actions that happened once and are done. However, verbs that express mental and emotional states that are descriptive in nature are generally used in the imperfect in a past context. These verbs are: aimer, avoir, croire, détester, espérer, être, penser, and préférer.

To form the stem, use the nous form of the present tense and drop the -ons. Then add these endings:

FINANCIAL OTABIL

-ais -ions -ais -
iez
-ait -aient

The only exception is être in which you must use the stem ét-, but still the same endings. Verb stems that end in -c must use a cedilla (ç) under the c to make it soft. Verbs stems endings in -g keep the e before all forms except nous and vous.

47. Comparatives and Superlatives

Comparatives

aussi (adj or adv) que	as (adj or adv) as moins (adj or adv) que	less (adj or adv) than plus (adj or adv) que	more (adj or adv) than plus de (noun) que	more (noun) than autant de (noun) que	as many (noun) as moins de (noun) que	less (noun) than

There are some irregularities among bon and bien. Bon is an adjective meaning good, but plus bon is not used (just as more good or gooder is not used in English) so meilleur is used to mean better. Bien is an adverb meaning well, but plus bien is not used either. Mieux is used instead.

Sample Sentences

She is taller than Colette.	Elle est plus grande que Colette.	I am smarter than you.	Je suis plus intelligente que toi.
Peter runs less quickly than me.	Pierre court moins rapide que moi.
The kitchen is as big as the living room.	La cuisine est aussi grande que le salon.
I have more books than she.	J'ai plus de livres qu'elle.
We have as many cars as he.	Nous avons autant de voitures que lui.

Verbs can also be compared with plus/aussi/moins (+ que):

Il travaille moins qu'elle. He works less than she.
Ils dorment plus. They sleep more.

Superlatives

Simply add le, la or les before the comparative if you are using an adjective. With adverbs, always use le. After a superlative, de is used to mean in. If the adjective follows the noun, the superlative follows the noun also, surrounding the adjective.

Sample Sentences

It's the biggest city in the world.	C'est la plus grande ville du monde.
She is the most beautiful woman in this room.	Elle est la plus belle femme de cette salle.

FINANCIAL OTABIL

This neighborhood is the least expensive in Paris. Ce quartier est le moins cher de Paris.

It's the most dreaded punishment in the world. C'est la punition la plus redoutable du monde.

She works the most courageously of everyone. Elle travaille le plus courageusement de tous.

In French, you don't use any articles, as compared to English:

Plus ça change, plus c'est la même chose. The more things change, the more they stay the same.

48. Irregular Forms

	Adjective	Comparative		Superlative
bon		good	meilleur/e	better	la/le meilleur/e best mauvais	bad	pire	worse	la/le pire	worst

	Adverb	Comparative		Superlative
bien	well	mieux	better	le mieux	best beaucoup much plus more le plus most mal badly pis worse le pis worst peu little moins less le moins least

Note: Only use the irregular forms of mauvais in the abstract sense. If the idea is concrete, you may use plus/moins mauvais and le/la mauvais.

49. Clothing

50. To Wear

Mettre-to put on, wear (met-truh)

mets meh mettons met-tohn

mets meh mettez met-tay met

meh mettent mett

Other verbs that are conjugated like mettre: promettre - to promise and permettre - to permit.

Note: Porter is actually the verb to wear, but the French use mettre also. When involving clothing, to say It looks good/nice on you say "Il/elle te va bien." To say They look good/nice on you say "Ils/elles te vont bien."

51. Future Tenses: Simple and Anterior

The futur simple expresses an action that will take place. The futur antérieur expresses an action that will have taken place before another future action. The future tense is used just like it is in English, however, in French, the future is always used after quand or lorsque (when), dès que or aussitôt que (as soon as) and tant que (as long as.)

FINANCIAL OTABIL

To form the future tense, use the infinitive and add these endings that resemble those of avoir.
However, you drop the -e from -re verbs.

-ai -ons -as -

ez

-a -ont

And of course, there has to be exceptions. Here are the irregular stems for the future tense (these will also be used in the conditional tense):

Irregular Stems
aller	ir-	plevoir	pleuvr-
avoir	aur-	pouvoir	pourr-
courir	courr-	recevoir	recevr-
devoir	devr-	savoir	saurenvoyer	enverr-	tenir	tiendr-
être	ser-	valoir	vaudr-
faire	fer-	venir	viendrfalloir	faudr-	voir	verr-
mourir	mourr-	vouloir	voudr-

Other exceptions: For appeler and jeter, double the consonant. For nettoyer and payer, change the y to i. For acheter, add an accent grave. For préférer, the accents all remain the same.

jetter jetterai jette^rons paier paierai paie^rons achèter achèterai achète^rons préfèr préférai préfèr^rons jette^rez

paie^rez paie^rez achèterez achète^rez préfèras préfèr^rez jette^ra jette^ront paie^ra paie^ront achètera achète^ront préfèra préfèront

To form the futur antérieur, use the future of either avoir or être (whichever the main verb takes) and the past participle of the main verb.

Quand ils reviendront, ils auront changé. When they come back, they will have changed.

Dès qu'ils seront revenus, ils voudront repartir. As soon as they have returned, they will want to leave again.

52. Preceding and Plural Adjectives

Adjective	Singular	Masculine		Feminine
		Plural	Pronunciation	Singular	Plural	Pronunciation beautiful	beau (bel)	beaux	boh (bell)	belle	belles	bell little petit petits puh-tee petite petites puh-teet old vieux (vieil) vieux vyuh (vyay) vieille vieilles vyay

Note: The masculine singular and plural are pronounced the same, as are the feminine singular and plural. These are the most common adjectives that go before the noun. An acronym to remember which ones go before the noun is BRAGS: Beauty, Resemblance (même and autre), Age/Order (premier and dernier), Goodness, and Size. All other adjectives, except numbers, go after the noun. The three words in parentheses (bel, nouvel, and vieil) are used before masculine singular words beginning with a vowel or a silent h.

A few adjectives can be used before or after the noun, and the meaning changes accordingly. When used before the noun, they take a figurative meaning; and when used after, they take a literal meaning.

Remember that des means some, right? Well, there is an exception to that rule too. Before plural adjectives preceding plural nouns, you use de instead of des. Ex: Some old monuments. De vieux monuments.

53. Adjectives: Formation of Feminine

All adjectives must agree in number and gender with the noun they modify. Most adjectives are given in the masculine form, so to change to the feminine forms, follow these rules:

	Masculine		Feminine		Adjective
Add -e	brun	brahn	brune	brunn	brown
	fatigué	fah-tee-gay	fatiguée	fah-tee-gay	tired
If it already ends in -e , add	jeune	zhun nothing	jeune	zhun	young
-x changes to -se	généreux zhay-nay-ruh		haygénéreuse ruhs		zhay- generous
	Exceptions: faux foh		fausse	fohss	false roux roo		rousse	rooss	red (hair)
	doux doo		douce	dooss	sweet, soft
-il, -el, and -eil change to	naturel	naht-ur-ell	naturelle	naht-ur-ell	natural
-ille, -elle, and -eille	inquiet	ahn-kee-ay	inquiète	ahn-kee-ett	worried
-et changes to -ète	Exceptions: muet	moo-ay	muette	moo-ett	silent
	coquet koh-kay		coquette	koh-kett	stylish
-en and -on change to	ee-tahl-eeahn		ee-tahl-eeenn
	Italien		Italienne		Italian
-enne and -onne	cher	share	chère	share	dear, expensive
-er changes to -ère

-f changes to -ve	actif	ac-teef	active	ac-teev	active
-c changes to -che	blanc	blawn h	blanche	blawnsh	white
	Exceptions: public		publique	pooh-bleek	public grec	grek	grecque	grek	Greek
-g changes to -gue	long	law n	longue	lawng	long
-eur changes to -euse if adjective menteur mawn-tur is derived from verb			menteuse	mawn-tuhz	liar
-eur changes to -rice if adjective créateur kray-ah-tur is not same as verb			créatrice	kray-ah-treess	creator
-eur changes to -eure with adjectives of comparison uhr	ahn-fay-ree- inférieur		ahn-fay- reeinférieur uhr		inferior
And a few completely irregular ones:	épais	ay-peh	épaisse	ay-pehz	thick
	favori	fah-voh-ree	favorite	fah-voh-reet	favorite
	frais	freh	fraîche	frehsh	fresh, cool

54. Forming Plurals: Adjectives and Nouns

To form the feminine plural, just add an -s, unless it already ends in an s, then add nothing. To form the masculine plural, just add an -s, except in these cases: -al becomes -aux (exceptions: banal - banals, and final - finals); -eau adds an -x; and if it ends in an x or s already, add nothing. Just remember to change the le, la, or l' to les.

And of course there are more exceptions... some adjectives are invariable and do not have feminine or plural forms. Compound adjectives, such as bleu clair (light blue) and vert foncé (dark green), adjectives that are also nouns, such as or (gold) and argent (silver), and the words chic (stylish), bon marché or meilleur marché (inexpensive) never change.

55. More Adjectives

short	court/e	different	différent/e
loud	criard/e	situated	situé/e
elegant	élégant/e	big	gros/se
tight, narrow	étroit/e	curious	curieux/euse
several	plusieurs	nervous	nerveux/euse

lazy	paresseux/euse	tired	fatigué/e generous	généreux/euse	angry	fâché/e famous	célèbre	annoyed	irrité/e
decorated	décoré/e	old	âgé/e

Note: Remember the first word is the masculine and the second is the feminine. The addition of an e for the feminine form allows the last consonant to be voiced. These adjectives go after the noun.

56. Rendre + Adjective

Normally, the verb rendre means to give something that you owe to someone, such as On rend ses devoirs au professeur. It can also be used in the sense of to represent. But rendre + adjective means to make someone or something + adjective.

Tu me rends si heureuse! You make me so happy!

Le fait qu'il ne possède pas de voiture le rend triste. The fact that he doesn't have a car makes him sad.

57. C'est vs. Il est

C'est + adjective + à + infinitive is used when the idea has already been mentioned; while il est + adjective + de + infinitive is used when the idea has not yet been mentioned.

Est-ce qu'on peut apprendre le chinois en un an? Non, c'est impossible à apprendre le chinois en un an! Can you learn Chinese in one year? No, it's impossible to learn Chinese in one year!

Il est facile d'apprendre l'italien. It is easy to learn Italian.

60. To Live

vivre-to live, be alive (veevr)

vis vee vivons vee-vohn vis vee vivez vee-vay vit vee

vivent veev

The past participle of vivre is vécu. Habiter is another verb that means to live, but it means to live in a place. Vivre is used to mean the state of being alive. A subjunctive form of vivre, vive, is often used in exclamations. Vive la France! Long live France!

61. Object Pronouns

Subject		Direct Object		Indirect Object		Disjunctives
je	I	me (muh)	me	me	to me	moi (mwah)	me
tu	you	te (tuh)	you	te	to you	toi (twah)	you
il	he	le	him	lui (lwee)	to him	lui	him
elle	she	la	her	lui	to her	elle	her nous	we	nous	us	nous	to us	nous	us
vous	you	vous	you	vous	to you	vous	you
ils	they	les	them	leur	to them	eux (uh)	them
elles	they	les	them	leur	to them	elles	them

Note: You have already learned the subject pronouns. They go before the conjugated verb forms.

FINANCIAL OTABIL

The Direct and Indirect Object pronouns go before the verb even though in English they go after it. They also go after the ne in a negative sentence and right before the verb. The disjunctive always go after prepositions, or can be used alone for emphasis.

Sample Sentences:

I buy some pants.	J'achète des pantalons.
I buy them.	Je les achète.
I give the box to you.	Je vous donne la boîte.
I give it to you.	Je vous la donne.
After you. (familiar)	Après toi.
We go with her.	Nous allons avec elle.
He doesn't leave her.	Il ne la part pas.
He leaves her.	Il la part.
I love you.	Je t'aime. or Je vous aime.
She doesn't love him.	Elle ne l'aime pas.

Note: When you have more than one pronoun; me, te, nous, or vous come first, then le, la, or les, then lui or leur. Me, te, le, and la contract to m', t', and l' when they precede a vowel, the same way je does. In commands, the pronouns go after the verb, connected with a hyphen. And the pronoun order changes a little too: Le, la, or les come first; then moi, toi, (Me and te become moi and toi in commands) nous, or vous; then lui, or leur.

If you have pronouns, they go before the complete verb in regular sentences; but after the ne and before the form of avoir in negative sentences.

Nous lui avons parlé.	We spoke to him/her.
Vous en avez écouté trois.	You've listened to three of them.
Je t'ai demandé du pain.	I asked you for some bread.
Il ne l'a pas aimé.	He didn't like it/her/him.
Tu n'y as pas habité.	You didn't live there.
Je ne vous ai pas parlé.	I didn't speak (or haven't spoken) to you.
Ne l'avons pas fini.	We didn't finish (or haven't finished) it.

In the passé composé with avoir, direct object pronouns only must agree in gender and number with the past participle.

Je les ai aimés.	I liked them.
Il l'a regardée.	He watched her.
Elles nous ont écouté(e)s.	They listened to us.

Note: Add an e if the pronoun is feminine, and an s if it is plural. The l' could mean him or her, so you might not need to put the extra e on the past participle. The same for nous and vous. They must have an s because they are plural, but it is unclear as to whether they are masculine or feminine.

To say something hurts or that you have an ache, you can use avoir mal à (body part):

J'ai mal à la tête. I have a headache.
J'ai mal à l'estomac. I have a stomach ache.
Elle a mal au bras. Her arm hurts.
Tu as mal au genou? Your knee hurts?
Il a mal aux orteils. His toes hurt.

However, if someone is causing you pain, use faire mal (to hurt) plus the indirect pronoun.

Tu me fais mal. You're hurting me.
Ne lui faites pas mal. Don't hurt him / her.

63. Asking Questions

- 1) Invert the subject and verb form and add a hyphen. Instead of Vous parlez anglais? use Parlezvous anglais? But if you invert il, elle, or on, you must put a t between the verb form (if it ends in a vowel) and the subject for ease of pronunciation. Parle-il anglais? is incorrect and must become Parlet-il anglais? And je is usually only inverted with pouvoir or devoir. However, if je is inverted with pouvoir, you don't use peux, but puis. Puis-je? (pweezh) is Can I?
- 2) Add n'est-ce pas? (ness pah) to the end of the sentence. It is equivalent to isn't it, don't you, aren't we, won't you, etc.
- 3) If the question requires a yes or no answer, put Est-ce que (ess kuh) at the beginning. It contracts to Est-ce qu' before a word beginning with a vowel, such as elle, il or on. You can also use interrogative words (quand, comment, où, etc.) at the beginning of the sentence and then add est-ce que.
- 4) With interrogative words, you can also use inversion: Quand tes parents partent-ils en vacances? Or you can use an interrogative with est-ce que and normal word order: Pourquoi est-ce que vous êtes ici?
- 5) Quel (which, what) agrees with the noun it modifies. It precedes the noun or the verb être, it may follow a preposition, and it can be used with inversion or with est-ce que. Quelle est la date? A quelle heure partez-vous? Quels bagages est-ce que vous prenez? Notice that the forms of quel can also be used in exclamatory sentences. Quel beau jour! What a beautiful day!
- 6) With negative questions, negative expressions remain in their usual place (i.e. around the verb, or verb and subject if inverted). Tu ne travailles pas? Est-ce que te ne travailles pas? Ne travailles-tu pas? Pourquoi n'as-tu pas travaillé?

Asking Questions with the Passé Composé

Only the auxiliary verb (avoir or être) and the subject pronoun are inverted. The past participle follows.
A-t-il été surpris? Was he surprised? T'es-tu amusé? Did you have fun?

De quoi est-ce que tu as parlé? parlé? 1. Use of Inversion when Subject is Noun:

- a. With qui and quoi, inversion pattern is regular. Qui Marie a-t-elle vu? Whom did Marie see?
De quoi Marc a-t-il besoin? What does Marc need?

- b. With que, the noun subject must be inverted directly.
Que veut Jean? What does Jean want?
Que font les autres? What are the others doing?

- c. However, if the sentence contains more than a subject and verb, or if the verb is in a compound tense (such as the passé composé), the short form is not used.

Qu'est-ce que Luc veut faire aujourd'hui? What does Luc want to do today?

Qu'est-ce que les autres ont fait? What did the others do?

2. Verb Agreement:

- a. Interrogative pronouns are usually masculine singular. Les voitures font du bruit. Qu'est-ce qui fait du bruit?

Les enfants sont arrivés. Qui est arrivé?

- b. Exception: when qui is followed by a conjugated form of être, the verbs agrees with the noun that follows. Qui étaient

FINANCIAL OTABIL

Les Trois Mousquetaires? 3. Qu'est-ce que (or qui)

vs. Quel:

- a. Qu'est-ce que c'est que is used to ask for a definition, and quel asks for specific information.

Qu'est-ce que c'est que le camembert? What is "camembert"?

Quel est le problème? What is the problem?

- b. When followed by a conjugated form of être, quel is used if être is followed by a noun and qu'est-ce qui is used if être is followed by anything other than a noun.

Quelle est la date? What is the date?

Qu'est-ce qui est bon? What is good?

65. Forms of Lequel

Lequel is a pronoun that replaces the adjective quel and the noun it modifies. It expresses Which one?

Adjective		Pronoun
Singular	Plural	Singular	Plural
Masculine Quel livre lis-tu?	Quels livres lis-tu?	Lequel lis-tu?	Lesquels lis-tu?
Feminine Quelle page lis-tu?	Quelles pages lis-tu?	Laquelle lis-tu?	Lesquelles lis-tu?

Lequel contracts with à and de in the plural and masculine singular forms:

Singular	Plural
à + lequel = auquel	à + lesquels = auxquels
Masculine de + lequel = duquel	de + lesquels = desquels à + laquelle = à laquelle à + lesquelles = auxquelles
Feminine	de + laquelle = de laquelle de + lesquelles = desquelles

66. Relative Pronouns

Relative pronouns join sentences together. These words signal a relative clause which explains the noun called the antecedent. When there is no specific antecedent, ce is added as an artificial one. But it can refer to only things, not people. If the relative pronoun is the subject of the clause, use qui. If the relative pronoun is the direct object of the clause, use que. If the verb of the dependent clause requires the preposition de, use dont. If the antecedent is a place or time, use où.

C'est ce que je disais.	That's what I said.	no antecedent
Je mange des choses qui sont bonnes.	I eat things that are good.	qui is subject
Je mange des chose que j'aime.	I eat things that I like.	que is object
Voici ce dont j'ai besoin.	Here is what I need.	avoir besoin is followed by de

FINANCIAL OTABIL

C'est un restaurant où on sert les poissons.

It's a restaurant where they serve fish.
restaurant is a place

67. Demonstrative Pronouns

Demonstrative pronouns translate to the one(s), or that/those when replacing a noun. There are four forms, but they are not often used alone. De, qui, que, dont and -ci or -là usually follow them

Masc. Fem.

Singular celui celle Plural ceux celles

Donnez-moi mon billet et celui de Guillaume. Give me my ticket and William's. (or: the one of William)
Il porte ses propres livres et ceux de sa sœur. He is carrying his own books and his sister's. (or: those of his sister)

Quelles fleurs aimes-tu, celles-ci ou celles-là? Which flowers do you like, these (ones) or those (ones)?

Ceux qui travaillent dur réussissent. Those who work hard succeed.

C'est celui dont je parle. That's the one I'm talking about.

The indefinite demonstrative pronouns ceci (this), cela (that) and ça (this/that) refer to indefinite things or ideas.

J'aime ça. I like that.

Prenez ceci. Take this.

68. To Read, To Say / Tell, To Laugh

lire-to read (leer) dire-to say/tell (deer) rire-to laugh (reer) lis (lee) lisons (lee-zohn) dis (dee) disons (dee-zohn) ris (ree) rions (ree-ohn) lis lisez (lee-zay) dis dites (deet) ris riez (ree-ay) lit lisent (leez) dit disent (deess) rit rient (ree)

69. Disjunctive Pronouns

1. As mentioned above, disjunctives are mostly used after prepositions and can only replace people, not things. However, if the preposition is à, there are two possible rules:

à + person = indirect pronoun

à + person + à = disjunctive pronoun, in these cases:

se fier à	to trust
s'habituer à	to get used to s'intéresser à	to be interested in penser à	to think about rêver à	to dream about

FINANCIAL OTABIL

2. They can also be used alone, to emphasize a subject, with être à (to belong to) or in compound subjects.

Moi, j'ai faim. Me, I am hungry.
Ses amis et lui, ils aiment manger. His friends and he, they like to eat. Ce livre est à moi! That book is mine!

3. They can be added to -même to mean -self.

elle-même = herself

4. They are also used with ne...que.

C'est n'est que lui. It's only him.

70. Y et En

Y and en are both pronouns that go before the verb. Y (ee) means it or there. En (awñ) means some or some (of them), or of it. They replace prepositional phrases. In French, the phrases will begin with à (or any contraction of it), en, sur, sous, chez, or dans for y; and de (or any contraction of it) or a number for en. They cannot replace people unless the person is introduced with an indefinite article, partitive, number or quantity. Remember that they go before the verb, except in a command, in which they follow the verb and are connected with a hyphen. The -er verbs also add the -s they lost when forming the you (familiar) command.

Sample Sentences

Do you want some apples? Voulez-vous des pommes?
Do you want some?	En voulez-vous?
I have three sisters.	J'ai trois sœurs .
I have three (of them).	J' en ai trois.
It is in the drawer	Il est dans le tiroir .
It is there.	Il y est.
I am going to Detroit.	Je vais à Detroit .
I am going there.	J' y vais.
I am going to go to Atlanta.	Je vais aller à Atlanta .
I am going to go there.	Je vais y aller.
Answer the telephone!	Répondez au téléphone !
Answer it! (formal)	Répondez- y !
Stay there! (familiar)	Restes- y !
Don't stay there! (familiar)	N' y reste pas.

Note: Notice y and en don't go after the verb in negative commands. Treat them like pronouns. Ne or Je plus y or en all contract to N'y (nee), J'y (zhee), N'en (nawn), and J'en (zhawn). When you have a conjugated verb plus an infinitive (vais and aller), the y or en go in between the two verbs.

71. To Write, To See, To Believe

Verbs take a direct object if they do not need a preposition to connect it to the noun. Verbs that take indirect objects use prepositions after the verb. Voir-to see (vwahr) and croire-to believe (krwahr) take a direct and écrire-to write (ay-kreer) takes an indirect.

	voir-to see		croire-to believe		écrire-to write vois (vwah)	voyons (vwahyohn)	crois (krwah)	croyons (krwahyohn)	écris (aykree)	écrivons (ay-kreevohn)
vois	voyez (vwah-yay)	crois	croyez (krwah-yay)	écris	écrivez (ay-kree-vay)
voit	voient (vwah)	croit	croient (krwah)	écrit	écrivent (ay-kreev)

You can usually tell by using the verbs in English. We say "I see her" or "She believes him" or "He writes to them." In French, it would be "Je la vois" (direct), "Elle le croit" (direct) and "Il leur écrit." (indirect) But don't always count on English to help you out. Téléphoner (à) and Obéir (à) both take indirect objects in French but you can't tell that in English. In this case, you can tell by the à that follows the infinitive.

72. Animals

penguin	le pingouin	pahn-goo-ahn

73. Plaire and Manquer

plaire-to please, enjoy

manquer-to miss, be lacking

plais pleh plaisons pleh-zohn manque mawnk manquons mawn-kohn plais pleh plaisez pleh-zay manques mawnk manquez mawn-kay plaît pleh plaisent plehzz manque mawnk manquent mawnk

The past participle of plaisir is plu. To say that someone likes something, you have to switch the subject and object around, so that literally it translates to "something or someone pleases." As a reflexive verb, se plaisir means to enjoy being somewhere. Faire plaisir à can also be used to mean "to delight or to like."

Cette chienne plaît à Dominique. Dominique likes this dog. (Literally: This dog is pleasing to Dominique.)

Ça t'a plu? Did you like it?

Ils se plaisent à Londres. They enjoy being in London.

Cela me fait plaisir de vous revoir. I am happy to see you again.

Manquer has several meanings: to miss, to lack, or to regret the absence (miss). The last meaning uses inverted word order just like plaisir. Manquer à means "to fail to do."

Elle a manqué le train. She missed the train.

Vous manquez de courage. You lack courage.

Tu me manques. I miss you. (Literally: You are missing to me)

Ils ont manqué à les devoirs. They failed to do the homework.

74. Pluperfect

This compound tense is used for flashbacks or anything that had happened before the time of the narration. It's formed with the imperfect tense of avoir or être and the past participle of the main verb. This tense is comparable to the passé composé.

Imperfect of avoir or être avais avions étais étions avais aviez étais étiez + past participle avait avaient était étaient

Je n'avais pas fini mon travail quand il est arrivé. I had not finished my work when he arrived.
Vous aviez faim parce que vous n'aviez pas du tout mangé. You were hungry because you hadn't eaten at all.

75. Indefinite Pronouns

Indefinite pronouns refer to no one or nothing in particular, such as someone or something.

someone/body	quelqu'un	somewhere	quelque part something	quelque chose (de + adjective)	not one, none	aucun...ne
some (masc)	quelques-uns	some (fem)	quelques-unes
another	un(e) autre	anything	n'importe quoi several	plusieurs	anyone	n'importe qui
some...others	certains...d'autres	anywhere	n'importe où
each	chacun	nowhere	ne...nulle part

Do not confuse chacun with chaque (each, every). Chacun is a pronoun and replaces a noun, while chaque is an adjective that describes a noun.

Because it was raining
And he left
In the rain
Without a word
And I, I took
My head in my hand
And I cried.

Translated by Lawrence Ferlinghetti, from Paroles by Prévert

Le Corbeau et le Renard
Jean de la Fontaine

Maître corbeau, sur un arbre perché,

Tenait en son bec un fromage,
Maître renard, par l'odeur alléché,
Lui tint à peu près ce langage:
<<Eh bonjour, Monsieur du Corbeau.
Que vous êtes joli! que vous me semblez beau! Sans mentir, si votre ramage
Se rapporte à votre plumage, Vous êtes le phénix des hôtes de ces bois.>>
A ces mots, le corbeau ne sent pas de joie;
Et pour montrer sa belle voix, Il ouvre un large bec, laisse tomber sa proie. Le renard s'en saisit, et dit: <<Mon bon monsieur,

The Crow and the Fox
Jean de la Fontaine

Master crow, on a tree perched,

Apprenez que tout flatteur Vit aux dépens de celui qui l'écoute. Cette leçon vaut bien un fromage sans doute.>> Le corbeau, honteux et confus, Jura, mais un peu tard, qu'on ne l'y prendrait plus.

Held in his beak a cheese, Master fox, by the odor attracted, Held him with almost this language:
"Well hello, Mister Crow.
You are so pretty! You seem to me beautiful!
Without lying, if your song
Is comparable to your feathers,
You are the Phoenix of these woods."
At these words, the crow was overcome with joy;

FINANCIAL OTABIL

And to show his beautiful voice,
He opened his mouth wide, and dropped his prey.
The fox seized it, and said: "My good mister,
Learn that every flatterer

Lives at the expense of those who listen to him.
This lesson is well worth a cheese without doubt."
The crow, ashamed and embarrassed, Swore, but a little late, that he would never be taken again.

Il faut + infinitive (it is necessary, one must) Il faut tourner à gauche. It is necessary to turn left.

Il faut faire les devoirs. One must do homework.

Il lui faut aller à l'école. He must go to school.

Il reste (there remains)

Il reste une chambre. There is one room left.

Il n'en reste plus. There are no more left.

Il me reste trois jours. I have three days left.

Notice that il faut and il reste can both take an object pronoun to indicate a person.

Il vaut mieux + infinitive (it is better)

Il vaut mieux prendre le bus. It is better to take the bus.

Il vaut mieux apprendre les langues que la politique. It's better to learn languages than politics.

Il s'agit de (it's a question of, it's a matter of, it's about)

De quoi s'agit-il? What's is about?

Il ne s'agit pas de ça! That's not the point!

Il s'agit de ton avenir. It's a matter of your future.

Avoir beau (although, despite the fact, however much)

J'ai beau étudier cette langue, je ne la parle pas. Although I study this language, I don't speak it.

Il a beau faire froid, nous sortirons. Although is it cold, we will go out.

77. False Cognates

Les faux-amis or false cognates are a common pitfall among language students. The following are some common words that you may be deceived by:

Abus is used to mean excess or overindulgence, and usually not abuse.

Disposer means to arrange or to have available, not to dispose of.

Une injure is an insult, not an injury.

Actuel and actuellement mean current and currently.

Avertissement is a warning, not an advertisement.

Une recette is a recipe, not a receipt.

Fournitures refers to supplies, not furniture.

Original means new or innovative, while originel refers to origins.

Humeur means mood, not humor.

Formel is used to mean strict, not formal.

d'habitude usually		nulle part	nowhere

To form an adverb, simply take the feminine form of an adjective and add -ment to the end. If the masculine form ends in -e, you just add the -ment to that. Adjectives ending in -ent or -ant take the endings -emment and -amment.

Masculine Feminine Adverb
naturel naturelle naturellement

Note: Some adverbs such as actuellement (currently, now) and éventuellement (possibly, perhaps) can be deceiving.

A Few Irregular Adverbs

vrai	vraiment	gentil
	gentiment	profond
	profondément	bref
	brièvement	précis
	précisément

Note: Adverbs are placed right after the verb in a simple tense. Adverbs of opinion and time usually go at the beginning or end of the sentence. When peut-être and sans doute begin a sentence or clause, they are usually followed by que. With the passé composé, most adverbs are placed between the auxiliary verb and past participle. In negative sentences, pas precedes the adverb, except with peut-être, sans doute, sûrement, and probablement. Adverbs of time and place generally follow the past participle.

80. Forms of Tout

As an adjective, tout precedes and agrees with the noun. masc. sing. tout le train the whole train fem.
sing. toute la journée the whole day masc. pl.
tous les enfants all the kids fem. pl.
toutes les mères all the moms

As a pronoun, tout can be used alone; it then means everything and is invariable.

Tout va bien. Everything's fine.
Je ne peux pas tout faire. I can't do everything.

It can also reinforce the subject as in: Ils sont tous là. They are all here.

Tout can also be used with direct object pronouns. The forms of tout follow the verb in a simple tense and go between the auxiliary and past participle in a compound tense.

Je les ai toutes. I have them all.
Je ne les ai pas tous eu. I didn't have them all.

Note: The s of tous is pronounced when tous is a pronoun.

81. Passive Voice

As in English, the passive voice in French is composed of a tense of the verb to be and a past participle. Any transitive verb with a direct object can be made passive. The active form, le chat mange la souris is made passive thus: La souris est mangée par le chat.

The subject in the active sentence (le chat) becomes the object of the passive. The object of the active (la souris) becomes the subject of the passive sentence preceded by "par." The verb of the active sentence is changed into a past participle (mange becomes mangée, notice the agreement!) preceded by a form of être.

Elle est portée par Jean. She is carried by John.

Elles ont été inspirées par Van Gogh. They were inspired by Van Gogh.

Il avait été tué par les soldats français. He had been killed by French soldiers.

If a verb takes an indirect object, it cannot be transformed into the passive voice. In this case, on is used in the active construction.

On a donné un cadeau à ma mère. My mother was given a present.

On lui a dit de retrouver le collectionneur au musée. He was told to meet the collector at the museum.

Notice how pronominal verbs change from active to passive:

Active: Je me suis réveillée. I woke up.

Passive: J'ai été réveillée par quelque chose. I was awakened by something.

82. Depuis, il y a, and pendant in past contexts

1. To express an action that has been going on, depuis (or il y a ... que) is used with the present tense.
Je l'ai depuis deux ans.

Depuis quand avez-vous votre ordinateur?

Ça fait deux ans que je l'ai.

Depuis combien de temps avez-vous votre ordinateur?

Il y a deux ans que je l'ai.

How long have you had your computer?

FINANCIAL OTABIL

I've had it for two years.

Je conduis depuis longtemps.

I have been driving for a long time.

2. But to express an action that had been going on for some time when something else happened, depuis is used with the imperfect.

Nous conduisions depuis deux heures, quand j'ai proposé de prendre le volant.

*We had been driving for two hours
when I volunteered to drive.*

3. To express an action that you have not done for some time, use depuis with the passé composé.

Je n'ai pas conduit depuis mon mariage. I haven't driven since I've been married.

4. To express an action that was done for a period of time, pendant is used, usually with the passé composé. But for an action that was completed some time ago, use il y a, also with the passé composé.

J'ai loué une voiture pendant une semaine. I rented a car for two weeks.

J'ai appris à conduire il y a deux ans. I learned to drive two years ago.

réussir	éviter
songer	s'excuser

Note, however, that when you mean "to tell someone to do something," French uses the verb + the indirect object + de + the infinitive.

87. To Follow

Suivre-to follow (sweev-ruh)

suis swee suivons swee-vohn

suis swee suivez swee-vay suit

swee suivent sweev

The past participle of suivre is suivi. Suivre can also be used with school subjects to mean "to take a course."

Suivez le guide! Follow the guide!

Suivez les instructions. Follow the instructions.

Je suis un cours de maths. I'm taking a math class.

88. Faire Causative

Faire + an infinitive is called the faire causative. It translates to "have something done by someone or cause something to be done by someone," or "to cause someone to do something."

Je répare la voiture. I'm fixing the car.

Je fais réparer la voiture. I'm having the car fixed.

Il peint son appartement. He's painting his apartment.

Il fait peindre son appartement. He's having his apartment painted.

Le bébé mange. The baby is eating.

Elle fait manger le bébé. She's feeding the baby.

When replacing the object with a pronoun, the pronoun precedes faire. And in past tenses, the past participle remains invariable.

Je la fais réparer. I'm having it fixed.

89. Direct and Indirect Discourse

Direct discourse relates exactly what someone has said or written, using quotation marks and the original wording. Indirect discourse relates indirectly, without quotation marks, what someone has said or written. It works the same way in French as it does in English.

Direct Discourse	Indirect Discourse
Il me dit : <<Je pars en vacances et ma famille a loué une villa.>>	Il me dit qu'il part en vacances et que sa famille a loué une villa. Main verb is present
Il m' a dit : <<Je pars en vacances et ma famille a loué une villa.>>	Il m' a dit qu'il partait en vacances et que sa famille avait loué une villa. Main verb in past

Note that if the main verb is in the present tense, no tense changes occur when using indirect discourse. However, if the main verb is in a past tense, the following tense changes occur:

Present ---> Imperfect Passé Composé --> Pluperfect

(The Imperfect and Pluperfect do not change.)

Remember to use que to introduce each dependent clause, and adjust personal pronouns and possessive adjectives.

In questions, the following (rather uncomplicated) changes occur:

1. Yes/no questions = si + declarative sentence Je t'ai demandé si tu avais faim.
2. Où, quand, comment, etc. = interrogative word + declarative sentence
Il m'a demandé à quelle heure j'allais revenir.
3. Interrogative pronouns are a little trickier:

qui est-ce qui Il m'a demandé qui était resté. qui qui est-ce que Elle m'a demandé qui j'avais vu. qu'est-ce qui ce qui Ils m'ont demandé ce qui s'était passé. qu'est-ce que ce que Elles m'ont demandé ce que j'avais dit.

91. Conditional Tenses: Present and Past

The present conditional tense corresponds to "would." It is used after the imperfect in a conditional sentence. Most conditionals sentences begin with si (if). Si j'étais (imperfect) dans une autre famille, est-ce que je serais (conditional) plus heureuse? If I were in another family, would I be happier? However, do not confuse the conditional would with the would that expresses a repeated action in the past. If would means used to, then the imperfect tense is used. Quand nous étions (imperfect) en vacances, nous dormions (imperfect) jusqu'à midi. When we were on vacation, we would (used to) sleep until noon.

To form, use the infinitive and add the imperfect endings. But remember to drop the -e on -re verbs.

-ais -ions -ais -

iez

-ait -aient

Also, you use the same irregular stems and exceptions for the conditional that are used for the future tense. You may have noticed that the future and conditional forms for je seem to be pronounced the same. Actually, the future ending is pronounced ay and the conditional like eh. However, it is difficult to understand the differences in spoken French and most people pronounce them the same anyway.

The past conditional is formed by using the conditional of avoir or être and a past participle. It corresponds to "would have" and is used in hypothetical sentences.

Il n'aurait jamais dit ça! He would have never said that!

FINANCIAL OTABIL

If... sentences

When si (if) is used in sentences of condition, the verb tenses change. These pretty much correspond to English usage.

1. Si + present tense + present, imperative, or future Si je suis fatiguée, je me repose. If I'm tired, I rest.

Repose-toi si tu es fatigué. Rest if you're tired.

Si je suis fatigué demain, je me reposerai. If I am tired tomorrow, I will rest.

2. Si + imperfect + present conditional

Si j'étais riche, je pourrais acheter un château. If I were rich, I would buy a castle.

Il deviendrait roi s'il avait plus de courage. He would become king if he had more courage.

3. Si + pluperfect + past conditional

Si j'avais su, j'aurais compris. If I had known, I would have understood.

It is possible to have past conditional with the imperfect, and it is also possible to have present conditional with pluperfect. However, you can never have the future or conditional tenses directly following si. They must be in the other clause. (This is a rule in English too... you can't say "If I will go tomorrow")

95. Special Uses of Devoir

Devoir is one of the trickiest verbs to translate and use in French. The following is a list of the different meanings of devoir used in various tenses.

	must, have to	Je dois étudier.	I must (have to) study.
Present Tense	probably	Il doit être malade.	He's probably sick.
	had to (and did),
Passé Composé	must have	Il a dû partir.	He had to leave.
Imperfect	was supposed to, used to have to	Elle devait chanter ce soir.	She was supposed to sing tonight.
Future	will have to	Tu devras payer l'argent.	You will have to pay money.

shaving cream	la crème à raser	makeup	la maquillage
razor	le rasoir	perfume	le parfum
mousse	la mousse	cologne	l'eau de cologne

97. Present Participle

Present participles can be used as adjectives, as verbs, or like a qui clause. When an adjective, it agrees with the noun it modifies. When a verb, it is invariable. Preceded by en, (equivalent to while, by, upon or in), it corresponds to the English -ing verb form. Used without en, the present participle can act like a qui clause and can also replace a causative cause. To form this participle, drops the ons ending of the nous form in the present tense and add -ant.

99. Past Infinitive

FINANCIAL OTABIL

The past infinitive is used to express something that has already happened. Verbs such as s'excuser, regretter, and remercier are often used in this tense. It is formed with the infinitive of the auxiliary verb (avoir or être) and the past participle of the main verb. And the past participle can have agreement as well, with either the subject or the object, depending on the sentence. Whenever après is followed by a verb, it is always a past infinitive. And note that negative expressions precede an infinitive.

Je vous remercie d'être venu.	I thank you for coming (or having come.)
Excusez-moi d'être arrivé(e) en retard.	Excuse me for arriving (or having arrived) late.
Après avoir fini mes études, je veux devenir professeur.	After finishing (or having finished) my studies, I want to become a teacher.
Elle regrette de ne pas avoir posé la question.	She regrets not asking (or having asked) the question.

103. Subjunctive Mood

If a sentence expresses a subjective statement of opinion, the subjunctive mood is used. The subjunctive is used in dependent clauses introduced by the word que. The main clause must express personal opinions or feelings and have a different subject from the dependent clause. If the two subjects are the same, the infinitive is used.

Je doute que la situation soit juste. I doubt that the situation is just. (shows judgment and opinion)
Tout le monde veut que venir. NOT: Tout le monde veut que tout le monde vienne. (use infinitive, same subject)

To form the subjunctive, use the ils/elles form of the present indicative tense. This is also the form for the ils/elles form of the subjunctive. For je, tu, il/elle, drop the -ent and add -e, -es, and -e. Nous and vous use the imperfect forms.

FINANCIAL OTABIL

Drop the -ent of present form, and add:

-e -ions
-es -iez -e -ent

Irregular Forms

	avoir		être		faire		aller
aie (ay)	ayons	sois (swaw)	soyons	fasse	fassions	aille (eye)	allions

veuilles	vouliez	puisses	puissiez	saches	sachiez
veuille	veuillent	puisse	puissent	sache	sachent	pleuve

Here is a list of common expressions that are followed by the subjunctive:

Verbal Expressions Conjunctions douter

avant que

suggérer pour / afin que vouloir jusqu'à ce que proposer à moins que

avoir peur bien que / quoique regretter craindre être content/triste/désolé(e)/surpris(e), etc.

penser/croire/trouver

(negative and interrogative forms only)

il faut que

il vaut mieux que il est important que

il se peut que il est possible que

il est temps que c'est dommage que

However, douter, jusqu'à ce que, à moins que, and bien que / quoique use the subjunctive whether there is a change in subject or not. And when using avant before an infinitive, the construction is avant de + infinitive. Note, also, that the subjunctive is not used with espérer or il est probable, although the subjunctive may be used with these words in other Romance languages. For some reason, this is not the case in French.

104. Possessive Pronouns

Possessive pronouns replace nouns used with possessive adjectives. They agree in gender and number with noun they replace as well.

Singular Plural Masc. Fem. Masc. Fem.

mine le mien la mienne les miens les miennes yours
le tien la tienne les tiens les tiennes his/hers/its le sien la sienne les siens les siennes ours le nôtre la nôtre les nôtres les nôtres yours le vôtre la vôtre les vôtres les vôtres theirs le leur la leur les leurs les leurs

C'est ma pomme. Voilà la tienne. That's my apple. Here's yours.

Il a son sac. Elle a le sien. He has his bag. She has hers.

C'est le mien, pas le tien! That's mine, not yours!

Ils aiment leur voiture. Nous aimons la nôtre. They like their car. We like ours.

105. Simple Past Tense

The simple past tense is used in works of literature in place of the passé composé and is never spoken. You most likely will never need to form this tense, but you should be able to recognize it for reading purposes.

-er (1st)	-ir / -re (2nd)	3rd conj.	4th conj.
-ai -âmes	-is	-îmes	-us -ûmes
-as -âtes	-is	-îtes	-us -ûtes

Differences in pronunciation:

1. An affrication of the consonants "t" and "d" before the vowels "u" and "i." For example, "tu es parti" is pronounced "tsu es parti."
2. There is a reduction of the pronoun "il" to "y": Y'est malade, Y'a pas le temps; as well as a reduction of "elle" to "a" ("elle a" becomes "aa"): Aa pas le temps, aa mal au dos.
3. "Chu" is a contraction for "je suis": Chu fatigué, chu en retard.
4. A "t" sound still exists in the expressions: "il fait frette" (froid), "mon litte" (lit), "viens icitte" (ici). And the old pronunciation for the "oi" sound is still used: "moi" and "Québécois" are pronounced "moé" and "Québécoés."
5. "Tu" is often added after questions: Il en veut-tu? Tu m'écoutes-tu? Je l'ai-tu?
6. Many people end their statements with: T'sais? (a reduction of: tu sais)

Franglais used in Quebec:

Bummer, spinner, slaquer, puncher, backer, rusher, spotter, tripper, checker, avoir un good time, être cheap, être opène, faire son show.
